

3.4.1 YEAR 4 SEMESTER 1

Prerequisites:

IGS 1101: Critical Thinking

IGS 1102: Communication Skills (An Introduction to General Studies and African Civilization)

IGS 2101: Communication Skills (Understanding Africa's Mathematics and Film)

IGS 2202: Communication Skills (African Technology and Literature)

IGS 3101: Communication Skills (Traditional African Health and Environmental Concerns)

IGS 3202: Communication Skills (The Arts of Africa)

IGS 4101: Critical Thinking and Communication Skills (Capstone Project 1)

With guidance the student begins her / his work on an extended multimedia self-portrait as part of a possible interview portfolio. The Communication Skills Capstone Project shall consist of the following:

- (i) An up-to-date resume in Kiswahili, English and one indigenous African language.
- (ii) An autobiographical essay of not less than twenty (20) pages and not more than thirty (30) pages.
- (iii) A PowerPoint/Prezi/keystone presentation on his/her autobiographical essay.
- (iv) A twenty (20) minute video presentation (accompanied by an abstract in Kiswahili, English, one indigenous African language) on any invention or innovation in your field of study.
- (v) A PowerPoint/Prezi/keystone presentation on any invention or innovation in your field of study.
- (vi) A twenty (20) minute video presentation (accompanied by an abstract in Kiswahili, English, one indigenous African language) on any aspect of African culture demonstrating its importance. This essay must include a discussion on the importance of gender awareness in the African society.
- (vii) A PowerPoint/Prezi/ keystone presentation on any aspect of African culture demonstrating its importance to your area of specialization.
- (viii) A twenty (20) minute video presentation (accompanied by an abstract in Kiswahili, English, one indigenous African language) on any challenge(s) facing modern society and your suggested solution to this/these challenge(s).
- (ix) A photographic essay on any important issue you may identify in the African community.
- (x) Produce evidence of having professionally relevant FIVE (5) of the following online: blog, vlog, Facebook account, twitter account, Instagram account, WhatsApp account, LinkedIn account, etc. This project shall be graded by impression marking.

Total Mark 100%.

3.4.2 YEAR 4 SEMESTER 2

IGS 4202: Critical Thinking and Communication Skills (Capstone Project 2)

With guidance the student shall complete and submit her / his extended multimedia self- portrait as part of a possible job interview portfolio. The Communication Skills Capstone Project shall consist of the following:

- (i) An up-to-date resume in Kiswahili, English and one indigenous African language.
- (ii) An autobiographical essay of not less than twenty (20) pages and not more than thirty (30) pages.
- (iii) A PowerPoint/Prezi/keystone presentation on his/her autobiographical essay.
- (iv) A twenty (20) minute video presentation (accompanied by an abstract in Kiswahili, English, one indigenous African language) on any invention or innovation in your field of study.
- (v) A PowerPoint/Prezi/keystone presentation on any invention or innovation in your field of study.
- (vi) A twenty (20) minute video presentation (accompanied by an abstract in Kiswahili, English, one indigenous African language) on any aspect of African culture demonstrating its importance. This essay must include a discussion on the importance of gender awareness in the African society.
- (vii) A PowerPoint/Prezi/ keystone presentation on any aspect of African culture demonstrating its importance to your area of specialization.
- (viii) A twenty (20) minute video presentation (accompanied by an abstract in Kiswahili, English, one indigenous African language) on any challenge(s) facing modern society and your suggested solution to this/these challenge(s).
- (ix) A photographic essay on any important issue you may identify in the African community.
- (x) Produce evidence of having professionally relevant FIVE (5) of the following online: blog, vlog, Facebook account, twitter account, Instagram account, WhatsApp account, LinkedIn account, etc. This project shall be graded by impression marking.

Total Mark 100%.